Shelby Bennett

5388 Mast St.|Orlando, FL 32817 | (321)684-8827 | shelbybennety64@gmail.com

Personal Profile

Organized and hardworking professional with experience in clinical settings and leadership roles. Proven ability to work well in team settings and work in an efficient manner. Detailed oriented and have participated in many clinical studies and tedious medical research.

Education

Bachelor of Science in Health Sciences | Conferred December 2022 | University of Central Florida
Track – Pre-Clinical
Minor: Military Science
UCF Coding Bootcamp | Anticipated Feb 2024 | University of Central Florida
Certification course- 7 months
Will work with HTML, CSS, JavaScript, MySQL and Python
Master of Science in Industrial Engineering | Anticipated May 2025 | University of Central Florida
Track- Systems Engineering

Work Experience

2nd Lieutenant Adjutant General | U.S. Army Reserves | August 2018 - Current

- Communicates effectively with Officers, NCOs, and lower enlisted soldiers to plan unit events.
- Maintains physical/fitness readiness for combat and functional duties.
- Manages and maintains the accountability of equipment.
- Maintains uniform/appearance standards of AR670-1.

ROTC | University of Central Florida| August 2018 – December 2022

- Trained new cadets about role positions.
- Company Commander, head of volunteering and social/ community outreach
- Communicated with co workers effectively to maintain a well working and organized environment, dealt with data and analytics

Physical Therapy Intern | B Physical Therapy, Oviedo FL| August 2022 –October 2022

- I will be working closely with several physical therapists to obtain over 80 observation hours
- will gain knowledge and experience in this field

Physical Therapy Intern| Lake Nona Performance Club, Orlando FL| July 2022-December 2022

- I work closely with physical therapists and aid them as a tech
- I help with patient care and observe techniques used by PT's
- Through this I gain experience and practice

DME Bracing Specialist| Florida Pain Care, Clermont FL| February 2023- present